FREE PUBLICATIONS

In an effort to serve you better, the U.S. Department of Education's ED Pubs (Education Publications) web site has undergone an extensive redesign. All of the publications available on this site are free of charge. This web site is:

<http://edpubs.ed.gov>

Students/Parents/Teachers/Administrators - These menu items listed near the top of the web page allow you to quickly find publications that are intended for you. In order to make the search results more manageable, you can further refine your group by education level (e.g., elementary, middle, high, college/university, etc.) and subject (e.g., English, math, science, and social studies).

Additional ordering options include:

Phone: 1-877-4ED-PUBS

Fax: 1-877-576-7724

Mail: ED Pubs
P.O. Box 1398

"ALL OF US HAVE THE OBLIGATION TO INVEST IN OUR YOUNG PEOPLE...ESPECIALLY PARENTS - TO BE ACTIVE PARTICIPANTS IN YOUR CHILDREN'S EDUCATION."

- First Lady Laura Bush

TIPS FOR PARENTS

BE A POSITIVE VOICE FOR YOUR CHILD

As a parent:

- be a voice for your child.
- you are the one who speaks out for your child and the one who supports your child, not just financially but also emotionally, socially and academically.
- who knows your child better than you do? The teacher may know many things about your son or daughter, but the things that happen at home or have happened in your child's life, only you know.
- you can voice your concerns and your dreams for your child.
- you are the adult best able to help your child succeed.
- you become your child's strongest supporter.
